General Instructions: Read and analyze each scenario then answer the questions that follow.

A. A group of students created a mobile app for online tutoring. (10 points)

1. What type of IP protects the app's code?
   - Copyright

2. What protects the app name and logo?
   - Trademark

3. Why should they register their IP?
   -To protect their project's

4. If someone copies their idea, what right is violated?
   - IP right

5. What government agency handles IP registration in the Philippines?
   - DICT

6. What should they do before launch publicly?
   - Create the legal documents

7. What risk occurs if they don't protect their IP?
   - Someone can plagiaries it or steal it

8. Is it ethical to copy features but change design? Explain briefly.
   - Yes, because everyone can be having general features but different flows or process

9. Suggest one way to protect their innovation (2 points)
   - Proper protection of IP like register it

B. An IT employee develops software while working in a company. (10 pints)

1. Who usually owns the software?
   - Usually, the company

2. What document determines ownership?
   - Intellectual Rights

3. Explain "work for hire."
   - work for hire is where the company wants employees

4. What should the employee check in their contract?
   - The terms and agreement also policy

5. What conflict may arise?
   - The ownership of the software

6. Is it fair for the company to own everything?
   - Yes, if they have the agreement of the developer

7. How can both parties protect their rights?
   - By, having proper documentation agreement

8. What happens if there is no agreement?
   - There is a big misunderstanding when it come ownership of the software

9. Suggest a fair ownership arrangement.
   - I think both of them owns the system

C. A school computer lab uses unlicensed software. (10 points)

1. What law is violated?
   - Copyright

2. What type of IP is affected?
   - System property

3. Why is software piracy illegal?
   - By using the software and not did actually buy the licensed software

4. What should the school do to fix this?
   - All computer lab units must get licensed software

5. What risks does the school face?
   - Being reported by the true owner of the software

6. Is piracy ever justifiable?
   - No, because the developer of that software is giving much effort then someone will illegally use it for free

7. Suggest a legal alternative
   - By providing open source and add some subscription

8. Impact on developers?
   - Will be sad, because some point there is the money but turn into rock.

9. Should schools prioritize budget or legality?
   - I think legality because licensing a software cost to much money especially the currency of dollar nowadays, and affordable options

D. A student uploads a video using music from the internet. (10 points)

1. What is copyright?
   - Protecting originality of work

2. Who owns the music?
   - Not identified on the scenario but it comes from internet

3. What right is violated?
   - Copyright

4. What is fair use?
   - By pleasing the owner of the music that you will use the music for school purposes

5. When is using music allowed?
   - When the real owner of the music agreed you to use him/her music

6. Why was the video taken down?
   -By unauthorized of music

7. Is crediting enough?
   - At some point yes, not as always it depends on the owner

8. How can the student avoid copyright issues?
   - Authorized to use

9. Should platforms strictly enforce copyright?
   - Yes, of course because the copyright usually come from platforms

E. A teacher shares PDF books and modules as an online learning material. (10 points)

1. Is sharing full books legal?
   - No, if without permission

2. What copyright rule applies?
   - Properties of the work

3. What is plagiarism?
   - Ethical consideration by copying the work without permission

4. What should the teacher do instead?
   - Ask authorization if she can share the module on online learning material

5. What harm can this cause publishers?
   - Lost rights and respects

6. Is it ethical for education purposes?
   - depends, if they violate the copyright

7. Suggest legal alternatives
   - Use free license PDF

8. What happens if reported?
   - It will be charges legal sanctions

9. Create guidelines for sharing materials
   - Use those free PDF if want to share in VLE
   - Proper giving credits of the owner
   - Asking first authorization

Name: DAVE V. DELA CERNA